

BANYAN TREE SCHOOL, JAIPUR

GRADE 1
SUMMER HOLIDAY
HOMEWORK
SESSION 2024-25

Dear Parents,
Warm Greetings!

Summer Vacation is probably the best time of the year for the little ones; it's time for loads of fun for them. We have planned out some simple and interesting activities for our students and they are an amalgamation of simple yet thoughtfully planned activities which promote critical and creative thinking skills amongst young learners.

Students need to do the further given assignments as guided and have to submit in school after the summer break.

EVS PROJECT "MY FAMILY"

Paste googly eyes on the spoon.
Use black sketch pen / marker to draw facial features.

Paste wool on the spoon to make hair.

Cut the colored sheet in different shapes to make the body and dress of family members. (As shown in the picture)

Cover the pot / old mug with colored sheets and decorate it. Place all the stick puppets in this pot.

Count and write the number of family members on the pot.

MATH PROJECT

The Ant and the Dove

One hot day, an ant was searching for some water. After walking around for some time, she came to a spring. To reach the spring, she had to climb up a blade of grass. While making her way up, she slipped and fell into the water.

She could have drowned if a dove up a nearby tree had not seen her. Seeing that the ant was in trouble, the dove quickly plucked off a leaf and dropped it into the water near the struggling ant. The ant moved towards the leaf and climbed up there. Soon it carried her safely to dry ground. Just at that time, a hunter nearby was throwing out his net towards the dove, hoping to trap it.

Guessing what he was about to do, the ant quickly bit him on the heel. Feeling the pain, the hunter dropped his net. The dove was quick to fly away to safety.

One good turn deserves another.

A lion and a mouse

Once upon a time. There lived a lion and a mouse. One day the lion was sleeping. The mouse started playing on it. The lion woke up. He caught up the mouse and was going to kill. The mouse requested for forgiveness. The lion let him go. After some days the lion caught in a net. The mouse cut the net with his teeth. The lion was free. He thanked the mouse.

MORAL:

DO GOOD HAVE GOOD

The Hungry Mouse

A mouse was having a very thought time. She had no food for many days and made strenuous efforts get her food. All her efforts went in vain. She looked everywhere to find her food. As the days pass by, she became very thin.

One day, the mouse found a basket with corns. She also noticed a tiny hole in the basket, which was sufficient enough to move her in. She easily moved inside the hole.

Since she had no foods for many days, she ate a large amount of corn. Without realizing her, she continuously ate more and more corns. She realized very later that she ate a lot more than she actually required. After eating a whole lot of corn, she became very fat!

Satisfied with corns, the fat mouse tried to come out of the basket through the small hole. Unfortunately, the tiny hole could not accommodate the big mouse!!!!

The mouse started screaming 'Oh god! Let me come out, how can I come out?'

A rat after hearing mouse's screaming voice from the basket, asked her what happened!

Mouse told the story and asked rat a solution. Rat told, 'if you want to come out the basket, wait for sometime or even days to lose your all your fat until you grow thin.'

Mouse started to starve now but with lots of food to come out of the trap!

Moral Lesson: Anything too much is good for nothing!

The Boy Who Cried Wolf

Long ago, there was a young, cheeky boy who looked after some sheep near a village. The boy was often bored. One day, he played a trick on the villagers to pass the time.

"Wolf! Wolf!" he shouted loudly

The villagers came running up the hill to save the sheep. However, when they got there, there was no wolf. The boy laughed at them. "I tricked you!" he said.

"You must not tell lies!" said the villagers angrily and went back to the village.

Soon, the boy was bored again. He thought for a minute and shouted, "Wolf! Wolf!" Again, the villagers rushed up the hill to save the sheep.

The boy laughed at them. "I tricked you again!" he said.

"You must not tell lies!" shouted the villagers. They hurried back down to the village.

Later that day, a huge wolf really did come into the field. The boy cried and cried, "Wolf! Wolf!"

This time, the villagers didn't believe the boy. No one came to help and the wolf ate all of the sheep.

No one believes a liar, even if they are telling the truth.
